

Lunch at Frankfurt

Sébastien de Peyret

Town of Steinau an der Strasse, 15 February 1985, 0800 hrs

Team Tourgiev has traveled the sixty kilometers between Fulda and Steinau an der Strasse without encountering significant resistance. The captain's plan is to push his tanks forward with all possible speed towards the supply dump, whose walls lead directly to the city exit.

Given the intelligence at their disposal, the enemy seems to be shallowly deployed south of the train station. He orders Lieutenant Kuznetsov's recon elements to find the defense's weaknesses, after which Tourgiev will strike with his tanks.
